

You guys are group of friends who have gone out on a hike in the forest.

You have been walking for almost an entire day, until you realized you almost ran out of food and water.

You have no reception. You know that the sun sets in an hour, and you will be stuck in the woods.

You have an hour
to find help!

All you have at your disposal are 3 five-dollar bills,
a quarter of a bottle of water,
an apple and a flashlight.
